I get ahead of myself sometimes,

And forget the things I'm gettin' right.

But the carrots in a garden

Don't grow tall in just a day,

D

In my own slow, stubborn way.

Quit wishin' I was more.

CHORUS

^{Em} So I take little steps with a ^C big heart,
^G Even when the world feels too large.
^{Em} I might trip, I might stall, but I'll stand tall,
^G 'Cause every journey has to start
^D With little steps... ^{Am}
^C And a big, big heart. ^{Em}

VERSE 2

I used to think bein' quiet
^C Meant I didn't have a song.
^G Used to shrink into the corners,
^D Like I knew I didn't belong.
^{Em} But a small voice still can carry,
^C And a shy heart still can shine,
^G And the bunny that I'm turnin' into
^D Is a friend I'm glad to find.

PRE-CHORUS

^{Em / C} So I'll step out of the shadows, ^G
^D Quit apologizin' too.
^{Em / C} I don't have to be the best one — ^G
^{Am} Just be honest, just be true. ^{B7}

BRIDGE

INSTRUMENTAL

Em | C | D | Em | C | D | Em

Theodore don't say much out here,
Just rocks beneath the evenin' sky.
And maybe that's the lesson —
That you don't gotta know the why.
Tomorrow I'll keep searchin',
But tonight I'm gonna rest,
And trust that takin' little steps
Is how a heart grows best.

FINAL CHORUS

INSTRUMENTAL

G | A | Em

Yeah, little steps with a big heart,
That's how a scared bunny gets brave.
I might trip, I might stall, but I'll stand tall,
One small step's still a step I made —
With little steps...
And a big, big heart.
