Theodore kept a tidy house, everything in line
A quiet room, a steady fire, a little peace of mind
Then Shawn came rollin' into town with bags and hopeful eyes
Needin' just a place to land while tryin' to start his life
Theodore said, "Come on in, you can stay here for a spell"
And at first it all seemed easy, like it all might go real well
Two rabbits under one roof, learnin' how to be
But it ain't always simple when you live so differently

One leaves a dish till later
One wants it done right now
One's runnin' on empty
One's askin' why and how Little things can turn into mountains
If you let the hard words fly
And even a good home can feel like thunder
Under a troubled sky

BRIDGE

INSTRUMENTAL

D | Am | Am | C | Em | Am | Em | Em | G | Em | D | Bm |
G | D | Em | Am | B

Then the fight burned out to silence
Both of us worn thin
And in that quiet came the truth
Neither one could win
“I was cruel,” said Theodore
“Forgive me,” plain and true
“I should’ve been a better guest”
Said Shawn, “Forgive me too”
So we stood up in the wreckage
And we started setting right
The living room, the dishes, all the laundry from the fight
And somewhere in that cleanup, with the hard day
finally gone
A red cloth and a green cloth turned the whole world on

BREAKDOWN

C | Gsus2 | Em | G | Dsus4 | D | C | G | D | Am | B | B |
Em

Red for Theodore
Green for Shawn
Tied around our shoulders
And suddenly the hurt was gone
Not because the day was easy
Not because the pain was small
But because forgiveness built a bridge
Strong enough to hold it all
